One of the country's top decorators, Sheila Bridges was tapped to design Vice President Kamala Harris's official residence. Her own homes have appeared in Elle Decor—from her Harlem brownstone in 2005 to her house in the Hudson Valley. If that were not enough, the designer's iconic Harlem Toile de Jouy has appeared on everything from Wedgwood china to Converse sneakers—and made history by entering the collection of the Cooper Hewitt, Smithsonian Design Museum.
